

2010 Solstice Events

Anasazi Ridge:

(12)

(13)

Figure 12 – Feather playing the flute on Anasazi Ridge. Feather told the crowd many stories associated with the glyphs on the ridge.

Figures 13 thru 16 – The progression of light as it travels across the rock from one figure to another and finally exiting at the Venus star. The entire sequence takes about ½ hour.

(14)

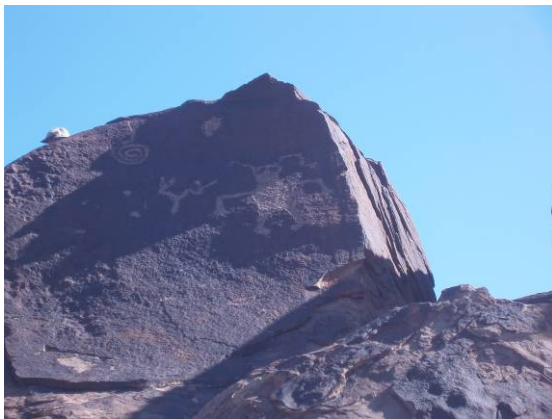

(15)

(16)

(17)

(18)

(19)

Figure 17 and 18 – light highlighting other figures on the ridge. There is another entire sequence associated with the panel depicted in Figure 17.

Figure 19 – a portion of the crowd on Anasazi Ridge, between 30- 40 people including DAS members.

Parowan Gap:

(20)

(21)

(22)

Figure 20 – the zipper glyph.

Figure 21 – the solstice sunset looking through the Parowan Gap.

Figure 22 – the people gathered to view the sunset in DAS members.